Policy for Determining Materiality for Disclosures

(2) Objective of the Policy

The objectives of this Policy are as follows:

- a. To ensure that the Company complies with the disclosure obligations to which it is subject as a publicly-traded company as laid down by the Listing Regulations, various Securities Laws and any other legislations.
- b. To ensure that the information disclosed by the Company is timely, transparent and continuous till the termination of the specific event or information.
- c. To ensure that to the best of the knowledge of the Management, the corporate documents and public statements are accurate and do not contain any misrepresentation.
- d. To protect the confidentiality of Material / Price sensitive information within the context of the Company's disclosure obligations.
- e. To provide a framework that supports and fosters confidence in the quality and integrity of information released by the Company.
- f. To ensure uniformity in the Company's approach to disclosures, raise awareness and reduce the risk of selective disclosures.

(3) Determining Materiality

Events/information should be regarded as material if it has a significant effect on the market price of the security or would affect the decision to buy, sell or hold a security. Even negative events/information may be considered material.

Materiality has to be determined on a case to case basis depending on specific facts and circumstances relating to the information/event. In order to determine whether a particular event/information is material in nature, company considers the 'quantitative' or 'qualitative criteria(s) mentioned below:

1. Quantitative criteria to determine materiality shall become applicable to an event / information:

a) where the value involved or the impact exceeds 5% of the gross turnover or revenue or total income; or exceeds 20% of the net worth (lower threshold shall be taken as a trigger);

the above threshold shall be determined on the basis of audited financial statements of last audited financial year.

→ 2. Qualitative criteria to determine materiality shall become applicable to an event / information:

Policy for Determining Materiality for Disclosures
